Holiday Site Design

#5: Create Urgency.
• Place a countdown on your landing pages and homepage.

#7: Utilize Your Homepage.
• Update your main image or slideshow to be holiday-themed, pointing to special deals, gift cards, etc..

#11: Schedule a Design Takedown.
• Set a specific deadline to remove all holiday design changes from your site. Save your images and code for next year.
Quick Site Changes

#26: Help shoppers be Santa.
• Highlight stocking stuffers by compiling smaller, low-cost items into one category.

#30: Say more than “thanks.”
• Provide a holiday greeting and any upselling opportunities on your thank you page.

#32: Avoid roadblocks at checkout.
• Don’t force customers to register at checkout. A sale is more important than a customer contact.
Quick Site Changes

#34: Highlight affordable options.
• Clear excess inventory and appeal to bargain hunters by creating a “Clearance” category.

#37: Reassure shopper safety.
• Make customers feel safe by showing off your SSL seal and service hotline.

#40: Get a second and third opinion.
• After making your holiday design and navigation changes, pull in some friends to perform user testing.

Free Shipping will help you increase sales. But the shipping costs are coming out of your pocket. Save profits by using lowest cost carrier.

Free Shipping

How do you make sure you can offer Free Shipping?

1. Know how much Free Shipping costs
2. Know when you can afford it
3. Make it work for you — Sell it!
4. Get the best postal rate possible
Extra Shipping Tips

#13: Display customer deadlines.
  • Tell customers the last day they can order to receive their package on time.

#17: Provide in-store pickup.
  • This will remove shipping costs for you and your customer.

#23: Offer free return shipping.
  • Consider offering free shipping for returned items to instill confidence before buying

Search Engine Optimization
(You’re late but there’s still hope)

#79: Feed Google something new.
• Submit a new sitemap to search engines with new holiday products and categories.

#80: Holiday metatags are friends.
• Adjust your meta data to include holiday-related keywords to help SERP rankings.
Pay Per Click

#63: Add cheer to your keywords.
• Adjust your campaigns to include holiday keywords, but watch your bids.

#65: Scale back on the content network.
• Shoppers are making specific product searches, not browsing blogs.

#68: Update your landing pages.
• Add holiday themes and be consistent with the messaging in your ads.
Pay Per Click

#70: Be aggressive. B-E aggressive.
• Step up your branded competitive bids to steal sales from competitors.

#73: Avoid wasted cash on wasted clicks.
• Evaluate and add to your negative keyword list for the holidays.

#74: Don’t be such a Scrooge.
• Be willing to spend a little more by raising your daily minimum.
Comparison Shopping Engines

#92: Get started with CSEs.
- Start with the free ones, move to the paid ones.

#95: Time is of the essence.
- Submit your products early – it can take 24 hours to 4 weeks to get listed

Coupons and Discounts

#48: Blow it out on the big days.
• Offer discounts catered to Black Friday and Cyber Monday. Your competitors will.

#51: Help others help you.
• Provide your affiliates with updated banners that are holiday-themed and include new promotions.

#55: Make a schedule and post it.
• Create a comprehensive promotions calendar. Post it in a place that’s easily referenced.
#85: Promote your promotions.
• Don’t forget to list your coupons and special deals on social channels.

#87: Ask customers questions.
• Run a poll asking followers for gift ideas & follow up with a discount.

#88: Turn to your blog for SEO help.
• Write posts with holiday long-tail keywords, linking to specific product pages on your site.
